

Ceroc Australia Dance Company Privacy Policy

In order to fulfil an order or purchase you may place via our office or website, it is necessary for us to collect certain information from you. The type of customer information we ask for includes name and address for billing and delivery purposes, day phone number, email address, and product preferences.

Ceroc Australia takes seriously the issue of our customer's privacy, and has taken appropriate measures to ensure that any information given to us by our customers is protected. We recognise the sensitivity of your personal information and will never share your details with any other organisation.

Ceroc Australia has a Membership program, which is free to join. We collect and store customer membership information for the following reasons:

- To ease the process of ordering. Keeping your information on record means you will not be required to re-supply this information next time you deal with us, although you will be able to update it, via our office staff.
- To personalise and customise your shopping experience. Information volunteered via our free membership program allows us to track your order and event history.

Privacy

We will not disclose any of your personal information to any third parties without your explicit permission. With regards to information collection and use, Ceroc Australia is the owner of the information collected on this website. We will not sell, share, or rent this information to others in ways different from what is disclosed in this statement.

Security

Ceroc Australia takes every precaution to protect users' information. User's information is protected online by encryption and firewall software. Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job are granted access to personally identifiable information. Furthermore, all employees are kept up-to-date on our security and privacy practices.
